

MEHRAN MOHAJER

Overview

Mehran Mohajer (b. 1964, Tehran, Iran) is one of the most prominent Iranian photographers of his generation. His influence has been broad both within his contemporaries and later generations due to his unique style, and his work as a leading instructor. Coming from a background in linguistics, Mohajer's works have been often dealing with the very concept of expression, the extremes of implication and the margins of transcendentalism.
